I have been married for 39 1/2 years to my best friend, partner and love of my life Steve. Steve served 7 years as Youth Minister and the last 16 years as Senior Pastor at Calvary Baptist Church where we have served for 23 years. Yes, a preacher and politician! We have 2 beautiful daughters, a precious son-in-love and 3 grandchildren. Our oldest Amber Moore, lives in Portland, Texas, with our grandson Carter (19). Blythe and Johnathon Jowers, live in Brownfield and have Ashlyn (9) and Kira (6). Johnathon and Blythe have served at Calvary Baptist Church, as the Youth Ministers, for 12 years.

Since becoming the Terry County Clerk the office has had a major overhaul. We have moved leaps and bounds forward with technology. In 2010 we underwent a huge scanning project in which we have from sovereignty forward. My sweet deputies have worked hard to get all the old probates, guardianships, marriage license, birth certificates and death certificates scanned into our CMS. Instrumental in creating Terry County Joint Elections Administrator Position in 2012. We work together as a team to make changes for the betterment of Terry County and a better way to serve.

I'm humbled, honored and so thankful to serve as Terry County Clerk. I love the clerk family and so blessed to be a part of this amazing association, which has taught me how to be a better clerk and servant for my community and beyond.

My motto is CARPE DIEM! I want to seize every day and take hold of what the good Lord has for me and what he wants to show and teach me. Today is all we have. I want to strive to be a better Christian today in my home, community and the courthouse than yesterday; and if my heavenly Father blesses me with another day, a better Christian tomorrow than today. I'm at awe every day of God's goodness. To God be the glory!
